Standards

SSWG3 Evaluate how cooperation and conflict among people influence the division and control of the earth's surface.

- Explain why political boundaries are created and why they change (e.g., nation, state vs. nation-state; political vs. ethnic sovereignty; the unrecognized states of Palestine, Kosovo, and Taiwan).
- Explain how geography (size, shape, and relative location) can be an advantage or disadvantage to participation in global exchange (e.g., Chile, Indonesia, Russia, Canada, South Africa/Lesotho, Turkey, and Switzerland).
- Explain the causes of external and internal conflicts among cultural groups, including but not limited to ongoing border disputes and separatist movements (e.g., partition of India, post-colonial Africa, and independence movements of the Scots, Kurds, and Basques).
- Explain how political, economic, and social networks and organizations of global power influence places, countries, and regions (e.g., United Nations, NAFTA, African Union, the European Union, the Association of Southeast Asian Nations, 1961 Antarctica Treaty, Non-Governmental Organizations, and social media).

| Criterion A. Knowing and Understanding Criterion C. Communicating | MH524 Resource Allocation Simulation Students will work in collaborative groups to draft a proposal for how the world should handle a newly discovered resource. Competing in a Model UN style conference, they will research and deliver a speech. Then, working in regional groups, they will debate and vote on one final proposal. They will also work together to develop a plan for how the resource will be produced and delivered to the world.
