BIG IDEAS

Character CHR

Structure STR

Figurative Language FIG

Literary Argumentation LAN

Required AP Literature Big Ideas and Skills: CHR 1.A, STR 3.C, STR 3.D, FIG 5.B, FIG 6.A, FIG 6.B, LAN 7.A

Priority Standards Unit Learning Targets:

- Structure: The arrangement of the parts and sections of a text, the relationship of the parts to each other, and the sequence in which the text reveals information are all structural choices made by a writer that contribute to the reader's interpretation of a text.
 - 3.C - Explain the function of Structure in a text (ELAGSE11-12RL5)
 - STR-1.D - Line and stanza breaks contribute to the development and relationship of ideas in a poem
 - STR-1.E - The arrangement of lines and stanzas contributes to the development and relationship of ideas in a poem.
 - STR-1.F - A text's structure affects readers' reactions and expectations by presenting the relationships among the ideas of the text via their relative positions and placement within the text as a whole.
 - 3.D - Explain the Function of Contrasts within a Text (ELAGSE11-12RL4)

- Figurative Language: Comparisons, representations, and associations shift meaning from the literal to the figurative and invite readers to interpret a text.
 - 5.B Explain the function of specific words and phrases in a text. (ELAGSE11-12RL4)
 - FIG-1.A - An antecedent is a word, phrase, or clause that precedes its referent. Referents may include pronouns, nouns, phrases, or clauses.
 - FIG-1.B - Referents are ambiguous if they can refer to more than one antecedent, which affects interpretation.
 - FIG-1.C - Words or phrases may be repeated to emphasize ideas or associations.
 - FIG-1.D - Alliteration is the repetition of the same letter sound at the beginning of adjacent or nearby words to emphasize those words and their associations or representations.
 - 6.A Identify and explain the function of simile
 - 6.B Identify and explain the function of metaphor

Support Standards Unit Learning Targets:

- Character 1 - Characters in literature allow readers to study and explore a range of values, beliefs, assumptions, biases, and cultural norms represented by those characters.
 - 1.A Identify and describe what specific textual details reveal about a character, that character’s perspective, and that character’s motives.
- Literary Argumentation - Readers establish and communicate their interpretations of literature through arguments supported by textual evidence.
 - 7.A Develop a paragraph that includes 1) a claim that requires defense with evidence from the text and 2) the evidence itself.

Essential Questions

1. How should one approach poetry differently than prose? What, if any, methods could be used for both?
2. How does the structure of poetry contribute to meaning and interpretation?
3. In what way do patterns in poetry contribute to meaning and interpretation?
4. In what ways do comparisons contribute to specific interpretations?
