Required AP Literature Big Ideas and Skills:

Priority Standards Unit Learning Targets:

- Structure: The arrangement of the parts and sections of a text, the relationship of the parts to each other, and the sequence in which the text reveals information are all structural choices made by a writer that contribute to the reader’s interpretation of a text.
  - 3.C - Explain the function of Structure in a text (ELAGSE11-12RL5)
    - STR-1.D - Line and stanza breaks contribute to the development and relationship of ideas in a poem
    - STR-1.E - The arrangement of lines and stanzas contributes to the development and relationship of ideas in a poem.
    - STR-1.F - A text’s structure affects readers’ reactions and expectations by presenting the relationships among the ideas of the text via their relative positions and placement within the text as a whole.
  - 3.D - Explain the Function of Contrasts within a Text (ELAGSE11-12RL4)

Resources, materials, assessments not linked to SGO or unit planner will be reviewed at the local school level.
• Figurative Language: Comparisons, representations, and associations shift meaning from the literal to the figurative and invite readers to interpret a text.
  ○ 5.B Explain the function of specific words and phrases in a text. (ELAGSE11-12RL4)
    ■ FIG-1.A - An antecedent is a word, phrase, or clause that precedes its referent. Referents may include pronouns, nouns, phrases, or clauses.
    ■ FIG-1.B - Referents are ambiguous if they can refer to more than one antecedent, which affects interpretation.
    ■ FIG-1.C - Words or phrases may be repeated to emphasize ideas or associations.
    ■ FIG-1.D - Alliteration is the repetition of the same letter sound at the beginning of adjacent or nearby words to emphasize those words and their associations or representations.
  ○ 6.A Identify and explain the function of simile
  ○ 6.B Identify and explain the function of metaphor

Support Standards Unit Learning Targets:

• Character 1 - Characters in literature allow readers to study and explore a range of values, beliefs, assumptions, biases, and cultural norms represented by those characters.
  1.A Identify and describe what specific textual details reveal about a character, that character’s perspective, and that character’s motives.
• Literary Argumentation - Readers establish and communicate their interpretations of literature through arguments supported by textual evidence.
  7.A Develop a paragraph that includes 1) a claim that requires defense with evidence from the text and 2) the evidence itself.

Essential Questions

1. How should one approach poetry differently than prose? What, if any, methods could be used for both?
2. How does the structure of poetry contribute to meaning and interpretation?
3. In what way do patterns in poetry contribute to meaning and interpretation?
4. In what ways do comparisons contribute to specific interpretations?

<td>Identifying Contrasts and Deducing Meaning&lt;br&gt;DOK 1, 2 Knowledge, Understanding, and Application</td>
<td>1. Teachers will gauge retention of previously taught concepts of poetry, metaphor, simile, rhyme scheme, stanza, and breaks.&lt;br&gt;2. Teachers will provide multiple mini-lessons on use of contrasts in poetry&lt;br&gt;   a. Literal and Figurative Meanings&lt;br&gt;   b. Introduced through focus, tone, point of view, character, narrator, or speaker perspective&lt;br&gt;   c. Are the result of shifts or juxtaposition (or both)&lt;br&gt;   d. Connection between shifts and words/structural convention/punctuation&lt;br&gt;   e. Shifts may emphasize contrasts between segments of text&lt;br&gt;3. Teacher will facilitate analysis of select poem in order to focus students on identifying contrasts&lt;br&gt;4. Students will analyze poems in pairs/groups for focus on specific textual details that convey and reveal contrast.&lt;br&gt;5. Students will produce an initial claim regarding contrasts, how they are presented, and meaning&lt;br&gt;6. Students will peer review the analysis using the Prose AP Rubric, rows A and B.&lt;br&gt;7. Students will use feedback to refine writing and submit.</td>
<td>• Utilize AP Personal Progress Check (PPC) multiple choice questions to identify retention and/or instructional gaps to be addressed in mini-lessons.&lt;br&gt;• Partners to discuss and refine thinking before sharing with a full group.&lt;br&gt;• Annotations will be monitored for text comprehension&lt;br&gt;• Gradual release for converting simplistic claims to sophisticated claims.</td>

<tr>
<td>Analyzing Poetry Structure and the Effect on Interpretation&lt;br&gt;DOK 2 Application and Analysis (Basic and Strategic Reasoning)</td>
<td>1. Teacher will facilitate discussion around poetic structure, recalling rhyme scheme, stanza and breaks&lt;br&gt;2. Teacher will provide mini-lesson on various poetic structures&lt;br&gt;3. Students will read various poems and annotate for structure.&lt;br&gt;4. In pairs, students will create a double-sided analysis journal to focus on contrasts and structure (one per student) for discussion.&lt;br&gt;5. In a jigsaw, students will analyze a segment of a poem, then discuss how each piece of the poem lends to the overall meaning&lt;br&gt;6. Students will then write a theme based thesis statement on the poem.&lt;br&gt;7. Students will participate in a gallery walk of the poems and the thesis statements, adding feedback to the initial written response.</td>
<td>• Collaborative Learning&lt;br&gt;• Cooperative Learning&lt;br&gt;• Choral Writing&lt;br&gt;• Student constructed exemplar</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
8. Students will then select a poem that they did not use in their jigsaw to craft an outline for an analysis essay.
9. Students will produce a Literary Argumentative Paragraph on a poem of their choosing.
