Language and Literature A Year 1 HL

Unit Title/ Topic	Unit 1 Conceptual Understanding: Perspective and Culture	Hours:	60 hours
--------------------------	---	---------------	-----------------

Priority Standards/Unit Learning Targets:

Reading Literary:

ELAGSE11-12RL2

Determine two or more themes or central ideas of a text and analyze their development over the course of the text, including how they interact and build on one another to provide a complex analysis; provide an objective summary of the text.

Students will analyze impact of author's choices in literary text

Writing:

ELAGSE11-12W1a.b.c.d

Students will write arguments to support claims in an analysis of substantive topics or texts, using valid reasoning and relevant and sufficient evidence

Language:

ELAGSE11-12L1

Students will demonstrate command of conventions of standard English grammar when writing or speaking as appropriate to tasks, especially noting that usage is a matter of convention and can change over time

ELAGSE11-12L2

Students will demonstrate command of conventions of standard English capitalization, punctuation, and spelling

Support Standards/Unit Learning Targets:

ELAGSE11-12RL1

Students will cite strong and thorough textual evidence to support analysis of what literary texts indicate explicitly and implicitly

ELAGSE11-12RI1

Students will cite strong and thorough textual evidence to support analysis of what informational texts indicate explicitly and implicitly

ELAGSE11-12RL3

Analyze the impact of the author's choices regarding how to develop and relate elements of a story or drama (e.g., where a story is set, how the action is ordered, how the characters are introduced and developed)

ELAGSE11-12RL4

Students will determine meaning of words and phrases (figurative and connotative), and analyze the impact of specific word choices on meaning and tone in literary texts

ELAGSE11-12RL6

Students will analyze a case in which grasping point of view requires distinguishing what is directly stated in a text from what is really meant (e.g., satire, sarcasm, irony, or understatement).

ELAGSE11-12W4

Students will produce clear and coherent writing in which the development, organization, and style are appropriate to task, purpose, and audience.

ELAGSE11-12W5

Students will develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach, focusing on addressing what is most significant for a specific purpose and audience.

ELAGSE11-12W7

Students will conduct short as well as more sustained research projects to answer a question (including a self-generated question) or solve a problem; narrow or broaden the inquiry when appropriate; synthesize multiple sources on the subject, demonstrating understanding of the subject under investigation.

Students will gather relevant information from multiple authoritative print and digital sources, using advanced searches effectively; assess the strengths and limitations of each source in terms of the task, purpose, and audience

ELAGSE11-12W9

Students will draw evidence from literary or informational texts to support analysis, reflection, and research

ELAGSE11-12SL1 (collaborative discussion)

Students will participate in varied collaborative and academic discussions

IBO Standards (Assessment Objectives):

Students will know, understand and interpret:

1. a range of texts, works and/or performances, and their meanings and implications;
2. contexts in which texts are written and/or received;
3. elements of literary, stylistic, rhetorical, visual and/or performance craft;
4. features of particular text types and literary forms.

Students will analyze and evaluate:

1. ways in which the use of language creates meaning;
2. uses and effects of literary, stylistic, rhetorical, visual or theatrical techniques;
3. relationships among different texts;
4. ways in which texts may offer perspectives on human concerns.

Students will communicate:

1. ideas in clear, logical and persuasive manner
2. in a range of styles, registers and for a variety of purposes and situations

Unit Description and texts

Unit description and texts:

Literary- Master Harold ... and the boys play by Athol Fugard

Non-literary- A Streetcar Named Desire (film 1951)

Transfer goals/Skills

Approaches to learning (ATL)

Skills:

Students' thinking
Research
Communication

Details:

Student will recognize central technical and formal elements of texts to apply to previously unseen non-literary passages (P1, Learner Portfolio)

Student will understand global issues as presented in texts through analysis of content and form (IO, Learner Portfolio)

Student will understand comparative essay structure and construct comparative essays (P2, Learner Portfolio)

Self-Management: Plan short- and long-term assignments; meet deadlines

Reflection Skills: Identify strengths and weaknesses of personal learning strategies (self-assessment)

Social: creating classroom and discussion norms; create, through attitude and example, a safe classroom environment where challenging and diverse texts can be studied in a respectful manner

THINKING: encouraging students to actively engage in the formulation of hypotheses about a text's meaning and how that meaning is constructed without needing to rely on tried interpretations or on easily accessible online sources; fostering thinking through the juxtaposition of texts from different times, cultures, literary forms and text types

Content/skills/concepts

Learning process

Mastering Content and Skills through INQUIRY (Establishing the purpose of the Unit): What will students learn?

Students will know the following content:

- Historical Context- South African Apartheid, Colonialism, Imperialism, Racism, Socialism
- Terms: IBDP terminology, global concepts, global mindedness, IB exams, learner portfolio, authorial choice, analysis wheel, evaluation, and drama and film terminology.

Students will develop the following skills:

Close reading and annotation skills

Understanding content and form of various text types

Cold read analysis response - read and analyze:

- ✓ play
- ✓ artistic images as text
- ✓ video documentaries/film
- ✓ poetry
- ✓ graphic novel
- Develop guiding questions as lens for passages
- Monitor and reflect on developing skills in relation to P1
- Reflections on texts and the 7 central concepts
- Pair texts around common themes/issues
- Make connections between texts and areas of exploration, central concepts,
- Investigate global issues in texts
- Identify key passages from texts in relation to global issues through form and content
- Writing (essays, constructed responses, reflections, analysis, argument)
- Identifying global concepts and formulating global issues from those concepts
- Making connections between texts around similar global issues
- Articulating global issues
- Analysis of authorial choice
- Annotation and close reading
- Creating a line of inquiry
- Citing evidence
- Conventions
- Essay drafting and writing
- Constructed response/short analysis of film and drama

Interdisciplinary learning

(Keep pedagogical approaches used during the unit. Aim for a variety of approaches to help facilitate learning. Delete those not used and this statement)

Students will grasp the following concepts:

- How authorial choice affects meaning
- How different text types convey meaning differently
- How to differentiate between a theme and a global issue
- How we are affected by texts in various ways
- The ways in which meaning is constructed, negotiated, expressed and interpreted
- How texts offer insights and challenges about global perspectives

Language and Learning	TOK Connections	CAS connections
XActivating background knowledge XScaffolding for new learning XAcquisition of new learning through practice XDemonstrating Proficiency Details: This first unit of the IBLL course is critical for language and learning. Students learn the language of analysis for several different text types and how to transfer that analysis skill from one genre/text to another. They will have many opportunities to practice using their elevated language and analysis skills as we move through the unit and the school year.	XPersonal and shared knowledge XWays of knowing XAreas of knowledge XThe knowledge framework Details: In reading a play, viewing a film and reading other various text types, students will begin to understand What we learn about through the study of a literary text and how this is different from what we learn through the study of a non-literary text. Students will also understand In what ways interpretive strategies vary when reading a literary work and when reading a nonliterary text.	XCreativity Activity Service Details: Students will engage in arts and other experiences that involve creative thinking as they interact with the various texts.

Inquiry Establishing the Purpose of the Unit

Students will recognize central technical and formal elements of texts to apply to previously unseen non-literary passages (P1, Learner Portfolio)

Students will understand global issues as presented in texts through analysis of content and form (IO, Learner Portfolio)

Students will understand comparative essay structure and construct comparative essays (P2, Learner Portfolio)

Students will recognize a global issue within texts they read and will be able to articulate that issue in a claim statement.

Students will evaluate the effectiveness of author’s choices in conveying specific global issues.
