

Marietta City Schools

District Unit Planner

Grade 1 Social Studies

Theme	Unit 5- Community Helpers and Historic Figures	Unit duration (Days)	20 - 40 Days
--------------	---	-----------------------------	---------------------

GSE Standards

SS1H1 Read about and describe the life of historical figures in American history.

- a. Identify the contributions made by these figures: Meriwether Lewis and William Clark with Sacagawea (exploration), Theodore Roosevelt (National Parks and the environment), and Ruby Bridges (civil rights).
- b. Describe how everyday life of these historical figures is similar to and different from everyday life in the present (for example: food, clothing, homes, transportation, communication, recreation, etc.).

SS1G1 Describe how each historic figure in SS1H1a was influenced by his or her time and place.

- b. American frontier (Lewis & Clark and Sacagawea)
- c. National Parks (Theodore Roosevelt)
- d. Southern U.S. ( Ruby Bridges)

SS1CG1 Describe how the historical figures in SS1H1a display positive character traits such as: fairness, respect for others, respect for the environment, courage, equality, tolerance, perseverance, and commitment.

Information Processing Skills:

1. compare similarities and differences
2. organize items chronologically
3. identify issues and/or problems and alternative solutions
4. distinguish between fact and opinion
5. identify main idea, detail, sequence of events, and cause and effect in a social studies context
6. identify and use primary and secondary sources
7. interpret timelines, charts, and tables

Map and Globe Skills:

1. use a compass rose to identify cardinal directions
2. use intermediate directions
7. use a map to explain impact of geography on historical and current event

Themes and Enduring Understandings:

Individuals, Groups and Institutions: The student will understand that what people, groups, and institutions say and do can help or harm others whether they mean to or not.

Scarcity: The student will understand that because people cannot have everything they want, they have to make choices.

Time, Change, Continuity: The student will understand that some things will change over time, while others stay the same

Essential Questions

Factual—

What is scarcity?

What is a contribution?

What contributions did Meriwether Lewis and William Clark with Sacagawea (exploration), Theodore Roosevelt (National Parks and the environment), and Ruby Bridges (civil rights) make?

Inferential—

How did the choices made by Meriwether Lewis and William Clark with Sacagawea (exploration), Theodore Roosevelt (National Parks and the environment), and Ruby Bridges (civil rights) help our country?

How did the choices made by Meriwether Lewis and William Clark with Sacagawea (exploration), Theodore Roosevelt (National Parks and the environment), and Ruby Bridges (civil rights) hurt our country?

How did scarcity push Theodore Roosevelt to save the land?

How do we use the inventions or contributions made by Meriwether Lewis and William Clark with Sacagawea (exploration), Theodore Roosevelt (National Parks and the environment), and Ruby Bridges (civil rights) today?

Critical Thinking-

How is my life different because of Meriwether Lewis and William Clark with Sacagawea (exploration), Theodore Roosevelt (National Parks and the environment), and Ruby Bridges (civil rights)?

How does scarcity impact decisions over time?

How did fear of scarcity lead to the expansion of the United States?

How is Meriwether Lewis and William Clark with Sacagawea (exploration), Theodore Roosevelt (National Parks and the environment), and Ruby Bridges (civil rights) life like mine?

How are Meriwether Lewis and William Clark with Sacagawea (exploration), Theodore Roosevelt (National Parks and the environment), and Ruby Bridges (civil rights) different from mine?

Tier II Words- High Frequency Multiple Meaning	Tier III Words- Subject/ Content Related Words
scarcity contribution expansion expedition environment conservation	People- Meriwether Lewis and William Clark with Sacagawea, Theodore Roosevelt, and Ruby Bridges National Parks Civil Rights Segregation Supreme Court

Assessments

Summative Assessment(s):

Community Helpers and Historic Figures Anticipation Guide and Assessment

Assessment guides are designed to be given pre and post teaching and learning. Teachers can use the pre assessment to guide planning for instruction and providing differentiation to students as needed. Post teaching the assessments measure student understanding of unit content.

*Teachers can access the anticipation guides via the grade level Schoology Course.

Theme Based Writing Task and Rubric:

Community Helper Poem Write an action poem about the life of a historic figure

Standards:

SS1H1 Read about and describe the life of historical figures in American history.

- a. Identify the contributions made by these figures: Meriwether Lewis and William Clark with Sacagawea (exploration), Theodore Roosevelt (National Parks and the environment), and Ruby Bridges (civil rights).
- b. Describe how everyday life of these historical figures is similar to and different from everyday life in the present (for example: food, clothing, homes, transportation, communication, recreation, etc.).

SS1CG1 Describe how the historical figures in SS1H1a display positive character traits such as: fairness, respect for others, respect for the environment, courage, equality, tolerance, perseverance, and commitment.

Now Hear This: Equity PSA Taking inspiration from Ruby- students will discuss how Ruby Bridges was an inspiration for other African American or Black children during the Civil Rights Movement. They will then choose an example of something that is unfair today and work as a team to create a public service announcement encouraging others to end the unfair practice.

SS1H1 Read about and describe the life of historical figures in American history.

- a. Identify the contributions made by these figures: Ruby Bridges (civil rights).
- b. Describe how everyday life of these historical figures is similar to and different from everyday life in the present (for example: food, clothing, homes, transportation, communication, recreation, etc.).

SS1G1 Describe how each historic figure in SS1H1a was influenced by his or her time and place

SS1CG1 Describe how the historical figures in SS1H1a display positive character traits such as: fairness, respect for others, respect for the environment, courage, equality, tolerance, perseverance, and commitment.

Then and Now: Ruby Bridges is a Good Citizen Students will review the characteristics of good citizens, draw a picture of Ruby showing one of the traits, and write a letter to Ruby.

SS1CG1 Describe how the historical figures in SS1H1a display positive character traits such as: fairness, respect for others, respect for the environment, courage, equality, tolerance, perseverance, and commitment.

The Winner is... Students will use what they have learned to decide which historical figure is their favorite and defend their thinking.
All Standards for the Unit

Objective or Content	Learning Experiences	Differentiation Considerations
Teacher Supports	Parent Information Letter-Edit for school specific information Click here for GADOE Content Video (For Teachers only) Click here for Additional Content Video Teacher Notes for this unit Additional unit information may be found at the GADOE GPS Landing Page Museum Box Unit. This unit has a Museum Box for Westward Expansion. The artifacts related to Lewis and Clark may be useful in teaching, however much of the box is dedicated to grades 3-5 content. Boxes/Artifacts may be checked out for up to three days through the Social Studies coordinator.
All GSE for the Unit	ABC Organizer This graphic organizer activity is designed to display student learning throughout the unit. Each lesson provides opportunities for students to add information to their organizer as a record of learning. This activity can also be used as a review for the unit after learning.	Work in small groups or with partners

SS1H1 Read about and describe the life of historical figures in American history. a. Identify the contributions made by these figures: Theodore Roosevelt SS1G1 Describe how each historic figure in SS1H1a was influenced by his or her time and place SS1CG1 Describe how the historical figures in SS1H1a display positive character traits such as: fairness, respect for others, respect for the environment, courage, equality, tolerance, perseverance, and commitment.	What am I Going to Learn? Analyze primary sources and predict what we will learn in this unit about Theodore Roosevelt.	Print and cut the Artwork Analysis form and use it to scaffold discussions- focus attention on the traits for vocabulary development (this may also be an extension.) A link to an additional lesson is provided on the unit planner.
	Lewis and Clark Introduction and Timeline Students will analyze a historic painting of Lewis and Clark and learn about their expedition. A short video provides details about their expedition and contributions. Students will complete a timeline (three levels are provided) and write a newspaper headline.	Assure the level for the timeline is appropriate for individual learners. Provide additional support in small groups to complete the tasks.
SS1H1 Read about and describe the life of historical figures in American history. a. Identify the contributions made by these figures: Meriwether Lewis and William Clark with Sacagawea (exploration)	Shake it up Baby Using their understanding of the Lewis and Clark expedition, students will collaboratively choreograph dance moves to a song about Lewis and Clark	Preview new vocabulary as a group or divide the lyrics into smaller parts. Read the lyrics aloud to/with the class or guided reading groups.
SS1H1 Read about and describe the life of historical figures in American history. a. Identify the contributions made by these figures: Meriwether Lewis and William Clark with Sacagawea (exploration).	Let's Explore Like Lewis and Clark Students will learn of the contributions (discoveries) of the Lewis and Clark Expedition. They will examine historical documents from their journals then go on an exploration of their own and collect two specimens to add to a specimen box (optional) and create a journal entry describing their discovery.	Provide sentence starters and/or examples for the Specimen Box activity. Consider thoughtfully forming groups to ensure students are able to work independently and efficiently if needed. Consider asking guiding questions or giving prompts as needed.
SS1H1 Read about and describe the life of historical figures in American history. a. Identify the contributions made by these figures: Meriwether Lewis and William Clark with Sacagawea (exploration).	Window of Her Life Students will utilize a window note-taking strategy to explore the contributions of Sacagawea to the Lewis and Clark Expedition.	Complete the organizer as a class- students copy onto their own paper. Copy and cut the photo analysis form into sections to use as conversation starters. Allow students to create an original graphic organizer to represent their learning.

		Consider using the National Archives Artwork Analysis to support understanding.
SS1H1 Read about and describe the life of historical figures in American history. a. Identify the contributions made by these figures: Meriwether Lewis and William Clark with Sacagawea (exploration).	I am Sacagawea. Read aloud a text about Sacagawea and discuss her contributions to American history.	Students may illustrate the event and write a title for their illustration. Provide discussion starters. Read the text in small groups/guided reading.
SS1H1 Read about and describe the life of historical figures in American history. a. Identify the contributions made by these figures: Theodore Roosevelt (National Parks and the environment). b. Describe how everyday life of these historical figures is similar to and different from everyday life in the present (for example: food, clothing, homes, transportation, communication, recreation, etc.). SS1G1 Describe how each historic figure in SS1H1a was influenced by his or her time and place SS1CG1 Describe how the historical figures in SS1H1a display positive character traits such as: fairness, respect for others, respect for the environment, courage, equality, tolerance, perseverance, and commitment.	Not an Average Teddy Bear This lesson includes information about Roosevelt’s contributions including national parks, conservation, and the Teddy Bear.	Opening- divide students into groups based on the photo they choose (or assign the photos). Students will collaborate and discuss the photo and prompt. They may also use the photo analysis document. Work session- students may work in groups to complete the organizer. Teachers may choose to do the lesson in a guided whole group and make a larger graphic organizer to work with. Use the novice photo analysis forms as needed.
SS1H1 Read about and describe the life of historical figures in American history. a. Identify the contributions made by these	Community Helpers Concept Map After learning about the historic figure the students can complete a graphic organizer about the historic figure. The organizer could also be a work in progress as you learn about each historic figure.	Work in small groups or partners. Provide an example of a completed concept map by working through something students

figures: Meriwether Lewis and William Clark with Sacagawea (exploration), Theodore Roosevelt (National Parks and the environment) and Ruby Bridges (civil rights). b. Describe how everyday life of these historical figures is similar to and different from everyday life in the present (for example: food, clothing, homes, transportation, communication, recreation, etc.). SS1G1 Describe how each historic figure in SS1H1a was influenced by his or her time and place SS1CG1 Describe how the historical figures in SS1H1a display positive character traits such as: fairness, respect for others, respect for the environment, courage, equality, tolerance, perseverance, and commitment.		understand such as a “how to do” a familiar task. Consider using a partially completed graphic organizer for those who may need additional support..
SS1H1 Read about and describe the life of historical figures in American history. a. Identify the contributions made by these figures: Theodore Roosevelt (National Parks and the environment). b. Describe how everyday life of these historical figures is similar to and different from everyday life in the present (for example: food, clothing, homes, transportation, communication, recreation, etc.). SS1G1 Describe how each historic figure in SS1H1a was influenced by his or her time and place SS1CG1 Describe how the historical figures in SS1H1a display positive character traits such	A Tale of Two Presidents Compare and contrast Thomas Jefferson and Theodore Roosevelt. Students will learn about Mount Rushmore and also review how to compare individuals in this lesson. An extension to compare one of the presidents to self is available.	Work with specifically designed groups. Share photos of the monuments studied in Grade K to make connections. Provide a partially completed graphic organizer, sentence starter, or word bank.

as: fairness, respect for others, respect for the environment, courage, equality, tolerance, perseverance, and commitment.
SS1H1 Read about and describe the life of historical figures in American history.  a. Identify the contributions made by these figures: Theodore Roosevelt (National Parks and the environment).  b. Describe how everyday life of these historical figures is similar to and different from everyday life in the present (for example: food, clothing, homes, transportation, communication, recreation, etc.). SS1G1 Describe how each historic figure in SS1H1a was influenced by his or her time and place	Where Are the Parks Students will locate each park on a United States map and cardinal directions to describe the National Park in relation to where they live.	Work in groups, provide research pathfinder for appropriate sites. Copy and divide the analysis form into sections to guide inquiry and discussion
SS1H1 Read about and describe the life of historical figures in American history.  a. Identify the contributions made by these figures: Ruby Bridges (civil rights).  b. Describe how everyday life of these historical figures is similar to and different from everyday life in the present (for example: food, clothing, homes, transportation, communication, recreation, etc.). SS1G1 Describe how each historic figure in SS1H1a was influenced by his or her time and place SS1CG1 Describe how the historical figures	Through My Eyes: Ruby Bridges Students will read The Story of Ruby Bridges by Robert Coles and analyze photos and quotes from Through My Eyes by Ruby Bridges. They will write how Ruby Bridges was a hero and identify one other character trait Ruby displayed. Finally, they will have the opportunity to compare their daily life with Ruby's.	Re-read the text multiple times as needed. Complete work in small groups. Consider providing a terms box of information to be placed in the Venn Diagram.

in SS1H1a display positive character traits such as: fairness, respect for others, respect for the environment, courage, equality, tolerance, perseverance, and commitment.
SS1H1 Read about and describe the life of historical figures in American history. a. Identify the contributions made by these figures: Ruby Bridges (civil rights). b. Describe how everyday life of these historical figures is similar to and different from everyday life in the present (for example: food, clothing, homes, transportation, communication, recreation, etc.). SS1G1 Describe how each historic figure in SS1H1a was influenced by his or her time and place SS1CG1 Describe how the historical figures in SS1H1a display positive character traits such as: fairness, respect for others, respect for the environment, courage, equality, tolerance, perseverance, and commitment.	The Problem We All Live With Students will review how to compare and contrast through fiction text. They will then analyze the Norman Rockwell painting The Problem We All Live With and compare it to a photo of Ruby being escorted to school by US Marshals.	Guide students with comparing Abby and Elmo and model one similarity and difference between the photo and painting. Utilize small groups with students who may struggle with comparing the painting and photo.
Recommended High Quality Complex Texts
I am Sacagawea (Ordinary People Change the World) by Brad Meltzer (please note this text mentions her kidnapping and subsequent marriage at a young age. Teachers may choose to skip those pages) Seaman’s Journal by Patricia Reeder Eubank You’re On Your Way, Teddy Roosevelt by Judith St. George

The First Teddy Bear by Frank Murphy

The Camping Trip That Changed America: Theodore Roosevelt, John Muir, and our National Parks by Barb Rosenstock

The Story of Ruby Bridges by Robert Coles

