Dear MCS Staff and Families,

Over the last 10 weeks, you've read too many long emails from me. While I always believed in my heart that the information was important, I also knew the emails were one more thing competing for your time and interest.

I promise to keep this one short, as you've earned the last day of school as much as your child. Please take time for yourself and your family. Put Schoology and the screen aside; enjoy the laughter and memories that come on this last day of "school" and the first day of summer break. And finally, thank you for being alongside us throughout the school year and especially during the past few months.

I'll be in touch soon regarding the next school year. Until then, have a good summer. You've earned it.

With gratitude,
Grant
