2. School MAP Data for Reading and Math – Mid Year Review and Action Plan

Second grade needs the most support. Their scores did decline. Some reasons for this is that the test is not read to the students. Second grade is also going to start holding student conferences to help the students understand their grades and what they can do to help increase their scores.

Third grade did well to close the gap more, however they can still use some extra support.

Fourth and fifth are also closing the gap.

One program that we are all going to start using is the I-Ready program for k-5 online. This will help us to be more consistent.

Reading specialists will help 2nd and 3rd by giving them an additional segment of time in reading.

Fourth quarter planning will focus on starting the next year. One thing we will talk about is what programs we are using and what we feel is working and not working.

There will be classroom visits from different grade levels.

Third, fourth and fifth will start having writing conferences to review writing.
